- Your art judged by industry professionals
- Winning art on public display for a year

Who?

The Cardel Homes Art-a-thon is open to all High School Students in Calgary and Region, Grades 10-12, public or private institutions.

What?

- The Cardel Homes Art-a-thon is an opportunity to express yourself and showcase your creative artistic talents. It may also bring some additional financial support to pursue your artistic learning. A total scholarship purse of $6,000 will be shared with the nine finalists.
- Flat (2D) artworks of a size not to exceed 36"w x 36"h x 2"d may be submitted. Art submissions must be framed or mounted for display purposes. Students full name must be visible somewhere on art piece
- Artists may use a variety of media to create their artwork including but not limited to oil, watercolour, charcoal, wood, metals, fabric. Photography is excluded from the Art-a-thon.
- Please ensure you submit an artist's statement with your piece.
- Maximum of 2 submissions per student.

Where?

The Art-a-thon entries will be exhibited at an art show and reception for family and friends on Wednesday, November 30, 2011, at 7:00 pm at the Cardel Theatre. Artwork will be adjudicated the evening prior to the art show by a jury of respected members of the art community.

The top nine artworks will be displayed for a year at Cardel Place in a secure case on the upper "piazza" concourse. Cardel Place is the centre for community, sport and recreation in north Calgary. www.cardelplace.com

How and When?

- Submit a completed entry form (found online at www.cardelhomes.com) and consent form with your art submission by November 18, 2011. Only completed forms and labeled art pieces will be accepted.

Consent to Post or Publish Student Information and Work

Our school would like to share information and communicate with parents by highlighting the school, student and student work or activities in a variety of public forums for non-profit educational purposes. The following are examples only and not meant to be an all inclusive list of how student personal information and work may be shown: displays during school sponsored open houses; professional development sessions; other school related activities held at the school, school district sites or at school or school district sponsored events; school or community publications; or posting or publishing on school or Calgary Board of Education web sites. Our school's web site may be accessed from www.cbe.ab.ca.

Students' photographs and work that are showcased will be identified using the student's first name, last name initial, grade and school only.

In order to comply with Alberta's Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy (FOIP) Act and the Copyright Act, the Calgary Board of Education is requesting consent from parents or independent students to post or publish student information and work on various public forums.

Please note the following information:

- Once photographs, student names and other identifying information or student work are released in any public forum, the Calgary Board of Education cannot control or prevent the further distribution or use of the material by those who access the information.
- Parents or independent students are under no obligation to consent; it is their voluntary decision to do so. If you do not return this form, this indicates a refusal to consent.
- Your consent will be valid for the duration of the school year. You may withdraw your consent prior to posting or publication by notifying the school principal in writing. You may at any time instruct us to remove the photographs or work from Calgary Board of Education sites such as school or school district displays or from the school web site or Calgary Board of Education web site by notifying the school principal in writing.

Consent for Release

I, being the independent student or the parent/legal guardian of the student named below, have read and understand the information provided on this form. I voluntarily give the Calgary Board of Education consent to post or publish my or my child's photographs, first name and last initial, grade, school and samples of my or my child's work in various public forums as described above for non-profit educational purposes. I understand my consent is valid for the current school year unless I revoke my consent prior to posting or publication by notifying the school principal in writing.
